

WORKSHEET
STD:9 - SOCIAL SCIENCE II
UNIT 3 -NATIONAL INCOME

1. Identify the three sectors involved in the calculation of national income from the given news headlines.

2. The amount of income earned by the members of a family through different sources during a year is the.....of that family.

3. The total income received by a country in a year is known as its.....

4. Analyse the table

Country	National Income (in billion dollars)
	2010	2013	2014
USA	16663.20	17348.10	17968.20
China	9490.80	10356.50	11384.80
Japan	4919.60	4602.40	4116.20
Germany	3746.50	3874.40	3371.00
United Kingdom	2678.40	2950.00	2864.90
France	2811.10	2833.70	2422.60
India	1875.20	2051.20	2182.60
Italy	2137.60	2147.70	1819.00
Brazil	2391.00	2346.60	1799.60

(Source : IMF world Economic Outlook, October 2015)

The above table shows the national income of few countries pertaining to three years.

- Find out the countries which have the highest and the lowest national income in 2014.
- Compared to 2013, which countries have achieved economic growth in 2014?
- Compared to 2013, which countries have failed in achieving economic growth in 2014?
 - Compared to 2013, what was the condition of India's economic growth in 2014?
 - From this analysis, list out the main objectives of calculating national income.

5.What are the objectives of calculating national income?

•
•
•
•
•
•

6.Find out the concepts of national income related to the given statements.

- Which concept of national income consider the domestic territory of a country?

- Which concept of national income is calculated on the basis of the final goods and services produced in a country?
- When we deduct depreciation charges from the Gross National Product we get
- When we divide the national income by population, we get

7. The cost incurred to remedy wear and tear is termed as

8. In India, a financial year is from to

9. Complete the table related to the factors of production and its rewards .

Factors of production	Rewards
Land
.....	Wages
Capital
.....	Profit

10. Find out the methods for estimating national income from the given statements.

- The national income is calculated by adding up the money value of goods and services produced by the primary, secondary, and tertiary sectors.
- The summation of consumption expenditure, investment expenditure and government expenditure.

- Useful for assessing the contribution of each sectors towards the national income.

11. Tabulate the given items according to their respective sectors.
(Agriculture and allied activities, Construction, Banking, Fishing, Industry, Mining, Business, Electricity, Social services)

PRIMARY SECTOR	SECONDARY SECTOR	TERTIARY SECTOR

12. Name the official agency that estimates the national income of India.

13. The assessment of national income is a tough job that is challenged by practical and ideational issues. Write the difficulties in calculating national income of India.

•
•
•
•
•
•
•

14. Find out the reasons for the growth of tertiary sector from the given pictures.

15. Today, as a part of the tertiary sector, growth of knowledge based services is happening on a large scale. Identify the persons from the given pictures who play an important role in strengthening this sector.

16.The Govt. of Kerala gives priority to the development of knowledge sector. Write two examples regarding the same.

17.List out the favourable factors which can help India grow further in knowledge sector .

•
•
•
•
•
•

Prepared by

PRIYA B

H S T (SS),C S H S S THRISSUR